

Claim # 159 Henry Reed

Claim No. 159.

Under article 4. Treaty of 14th June 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Henry Reed, aged 32, a Freeman of Color of the Creek Nation, and a loyal refugee, being duly sworn and examined, deposes
and says: Whilst living on his place on North Fork, about 15 miles from North Fork Town, and sometime in August he was run off by the rebels under Genl Cooper, and to save his life, fled away to Gibson and thence to Fort Scott, where he endeavoured to enter the Union Army, but was rejected by the Examining Surgeon. From thence he went to Fort Smith, Ark. where he remained until the close of the war, and returned to the Creek Nation. This deponent further says, that when he fled his home
he owned and possessed, and necessarily abandoned and lost all the property hereafter stated, and never afterwards received the same, or any part thereof. So Say:

400	Four hundred bushels of Corn @ $1.	$ 400.00
150	One hundred & fifty Q. Wheat @ $1.50	150.00
2	Two Horses $100. 4 head Cattle $48.	148.00
24	Twenty four hogs. @ $5.	120.00
	House and Kitchen Furniture &c	50.00
	Farming Tools, Harness &c. &c	32.00
	making a total value of	$ 900.00

Amount 159 Henry Reed

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony: Also the statement of claimant: The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive: Upon inquiring it is found the values of the different kinds of property at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Corn - per bushel.	$.50 Each.
Wheat - per bushel.	1. 00 "
Horses.-	20. 00 "
Battle.	5. 00 "
Hogs.-	2. 00 "

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

Farming Tools, Harness, &c.	$ 16. 00
House and Kitchen Furniture, &c.	25. 00

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Henry Reed four hundred and ninety nine dollars:-

\$499 $\frac{0}{100}$
